THE CONDITION OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES OF SUFFOLK AND SUDBURY IN THE YEAR 1603.

IN Volume VI., page 361, of the Proceedings, there is a paper bearing the above title, which only gives the Archdeaconry of Suffolk. In the Harl. ms., after the letter to the Archdeacons and the Archbishop's letter containing the questions, which he wished to have answered, there follows a state of the Archdeaconry of Sudbury, which is here transcribed: for some reason the Suffolk Archdeaconry was done first and this left. The Sudbury Archdeaconry, then in the Norwich Diocese, has since been transferred to Ely.
