

A CHECK-LIST
OF THE SACRED BUILDINGS OF SUFFOLK,
TO WHICH ARE ADDED GILDS.

BY CLAUDE MORLEY, F.E.S., F.Z.S.

The Suffolk Place-names need standardising; and this is here attempted. Under each Place have been arranged in order its:—1. (Gilds) Gildhalls; 2. (graveyard, market, wayside, boundary and other) Crosses; 3. (Augustinian, Dominican, Franciscan and Carmelite) Friaries; 4. (the regular monks') Abbeys and Priors; 5. (the military monks') Preceptories and Commandries; 6. (leper and other) Hospitals; 7. Hermitages; 8. Colleges of secular priests; 9. Chapels; 10. Churches, including the three Cathedrals of South Elmham, Thetford, and Bury. Churches mentioned, though hardly ever named, in Domesday Book are specifically dated "1086"; for the purpose of this List I have rarely carried their origin back to those Anglo-Saxon times wherein so little interest is now evinced. The date "1086" indicates that the church quite plainly emerges at that period, though occasionally under a different village, here added in brackets. Several points touching their dedications need elaborating, e.g., how many are ascribable to The Virgin, to Mary Magdalene and to the six other canonised Maries: pre-Reformation Chapels are more explicit. Several Chapels, standing entirely apart, in the graveyard, or distinctly outbuilt from churches, alone are enumerated; though their discrimination from those within churches is often obscure. Chapels, altars, tabernacles within churches would fully double the present List; and such, now recoverable, were but a tithe of those existent in Romanist times. I find 497 mediæval churches still in use as such; 38 are unused as such, and mainly ruined; and no more than seventeen modern ones have been erected during the past century, upon new sites, giving a total of 552 in Suffolk to-day. All are rectories; unless noted, along with the Monastery holding the impropriation.

To avoid vain repetition the following abbreviations are employed:—

Ch.	for church.
Pr.	„ priory.
a.	„ before (never anno).
p.	„ after.
c.	„ about.
f.	„ founded.
v.	„ vicarage.
