

FOREWORD.

The following lists and indexes were mainly compiled in rather difficult circumstances, in odd moments of leisure over a period of several months, in 1947. While every effort has been made to maintain accuracy, it is hoped that these facts will be born in mind by those who detect some of the errors and omissions which undoubtedly occur.

I. Index to articles, Proceedings, Vols. I-XXIV (1848-1948).

This index does not pretend to be a complete index of subjects mentioned, but has been compiled from the tables of contents at the beginning of each volume, where full titles and authors will usually be found. This fact should be born in mind when using the Index. For example, under "Antiquities, Ecclesiological" will be found only one reference to "Pulpit." This is because there is only one article devoted to a particular pulpit, that at Yaxley, but many pulpits are described in the articles on the various parish churches.

(In Vol. X there is a somewhat inadequate index covering the first nine volumes, and in Vol. XVIII is an excellent index, compiled by Mr. Freeman Bullen, covering Vols. X-XVII.)

II. Chronological List of Excursions and Meetings (1848-1948).

Towns and parishes visited are listed, but not individual buildings, etc., in each parish.

(A similar list, covering the years 1848-1888, is printed in Vol. VII.)

III. Index to Excursions and Meetings (1848-1948).

In searching for references to a particular parish, or building, this index should be consulted as well as the main index to articles. Useful information is frequently given in the account of the excursion, which does not always occur in the tables of contents and therefore is not included in the main index. Such accounts will be found, where they exist, by reference to the Volume covering the year or years mentioned in this index.

IV. Map of Excursions and Meetings (1848-1948).

This has been added in order to give an idea of the coverage during the first hundred years of the Institute's existence.

V. Table of Contents of the Quarterly Journal, Jan. and June, 1869.VI. Table of Contents of the Suffolk Archaeological Association's Original Papers, 1846-1848.

As the existence of these publications is, perhaps, not generally known and since they are of considerable rarity, it has been thought useful to include this item. As far as is known, these were the only numbers issued.
