

Reeves and Greaves. In his interesting paper on this subject,¹⁶ Dr. Cane touches on, but does not make clear, the relationship between the two terms. Reeve is the modern descendant in the Midlands and the South of Old English (ge)rēfa, which is not to be confused with greave. In (ge)rēfa the g was pronounced like a y; the prefix disappeared and the word became reve in Middle English. The corresponding modern form in Scotland and Northern England is grieve which derives from Old Northumbrian grāfa*, the northern equivalent of the West Saxon (ge)rēfa. The initial g was hard and gave Middle English greve.

A third form, with approximately the same meaning, is found in the Scandinavian counties, Middle English greyve, from Old Norse grēife. In South Yorkshire in the sixteenth century, the English greve and the Scandinavian greyve were pronounced very much alike and their spellings became confused. Both terms had given rise to surnames, the English greve now surviving as Greeves, Greaves or Grieves, the Scandinavian greyve usually as Graves. The Rotherham greave is a survival of Old Northumbrian grāfa*.

In Suffolk, the normal English form was (ge)rēfa which is found as reve side by side with the Scandinavian greyve. In a Suffolk document of the reign of Henry III in the Colchester Cartulary we find Hubert le Greyue and in 1317 in the Suffolk Fines William le Greive, whilst in the 1327 Subsidy Roll we have both Guy le Reve and Adam le Reuesson. Both forms still survived in the 1524 Subsidy Roll: John Greve and John Greyve the elder. The Bungay reeve derives from Old English (ge)rēfa.

A Seventeenth Century Token. Mr. Alex. E. Rollings, of Debenham, reports that a halfpenny token, issued by John Blumfeild of Worlingworth, was found in the parish of Debenham in the spring of 1954. This is No. 358 on page 76 of Golding's Coinage of Suffolk, and bears on the obverse the arms of the Grocers' Company, a chevron between nine cloves. L.D.

Ancient Monuments in Suffolk. The following is a list of Ancient Monuments in Suffolk which have been scheduled by the Ministry of Works under the Acts of 1913 and 1931; it is taken from pages 90-91 of the List of Ancient Monuments in England and Wales (H.M.S.O., 1953). Members are urged to report promptly to the Secretaries of the Institute any damage or threat of damage to these monuments which may come to their notice.

REPORT FOR 1954

During the year 49 Annual and 14 Associate Members joined the Society. A number of members were lost by resignation and death so that the totals at 31 December 1954 were:—

| | |
|-------------------|-----|
| Annual Members | 418 |
| Associate Members | 92 |
| Life Members | 56 |
| Honorary Members | 4 |
| | 570 |

These figures show a net increase of 22 over those for 1953.

Excursions, Lectures and Meetings:— Four excursions were arranged during the summer:—

Six lectures were given at Ipswich and Bury St. Edmunds in the course of the year, those at Ipswich being held in conjunction with the Ipswich Historical Society.

| Dec. | 4 | The Preservation of Historic Buildings, by the Earl of Euston. |

Officers.—Members will have learned with the deepest regret of the deaths, during 1954, of Miss Lilian Redstone, for many years, like her father before her, an honoured member of the Institute; and of Mr. H. J. M. Maltby, our Honorary Librarian. Also, early in 1955, of Mr. Arthur Welford, who was largely responsible as Financial Secretary, for putting the Institute's finances on a sound footing after the war.

Revision of Rules.—A revision of the rules of the Society was unanimously agreed at the Annual General Meeting on 22 April 1954. The revised rules are printed in this issue.

Finance.—The Hon. Financial Secretary reports:—

The audited accounts shew that the balance of receipts over expenditure for the year was £65 13s 9d. Actually the position was more favourable than this figure indicates. At the beginning of December, there was such a substantial balance at our credit, that it was decided, in consultation with the Hon. Editor, to pay in advance to the printers as much as possible of the cost of printing and despatching the Proceedings published in the year—those for 1953. The Proceedings were then about to be issued and they were estimated to be likely to cost between £250 and £280; £250 were accordingly paid to our printers. The Hon. Auditor however pressed for a firm figure so as to account for all expenditure incurred during the year, within the year. He was accordingly advised to take the higher figure, which he did. The amount shewn under this head is therefore £284 3s. 6d., which includes £4 3s. 6d. carried over from the previous year. The bill has since come in and amounted to only £230 16s. 0d., £19 4s. 0d. being held to our credit against subsequent payments. The actual excess of receipts over expenditure in the year was therefore £49 4s. 0d. more, or £114 17s. 9d. Receipts from subscriptions have increased by about £20, due to increased membership; while those from sales of publications were some £12 above average. On the other hand receipts from refunded income tax fell slightly, in spite of an increase in the number of those covenanting, owing to the reduction in the standard rate of income tax from 9s. 6d. to 9s. 0d. in the pound. As regards expenditure, we have had some £12 of extraordinary expenditure; and the gap between receipts and expenditure on excursions (including printing and postage) increased owing to four instead of three excursions having been arranged for the benefit of members.

The cost of stationery seems to be steadily rising; and there are indications that we may lose the benefits of the covenant scheme. The net number of covenanters, mainly owing to the President's appeal in 1952, has now risen to 103, but the whole benefit of the rise will not be felt till the current year. It is doubtful however whether there will be much advantage from the rise as the standard rate of income tax is to be again reduced—to 8/6 in the £. If we do lose this source of income, our finances will be seriously affected. If we continue to receive it, prospects may be said to be favourable. But caution in expenditure is I think necessary, till the position is clarified by the Income Tax authorities.
