

DR JOANNA MARTIN
EDITOR OF PROCEEDINGS
2009–2017

Joanna and Edward Martin outside the church of St George, Stowlangtoft.

The Institute would like to record its sincerest thanks to Joanna Martin who has recently retired as editor of the Proceedings of the Suffolk Institute of Archaeology and History after nine years in the post. During this time the journal has continued to attract and publish high-quality papers of interest to its members and the wider academic community.

Before becoming editor she was membership secretary for sixteen years between 1991/92 and 2007/08 and during that time membership increased from 810 to 896, rather higher than it is today.

Joanna is respected scholar herself and has helped innumerable others to see their work in print. She sets an appropriately high bar for all her successors in this demanding but rewarding task, and all of us in the Institute owe her a great debt of gratitude,

Diarmaid MacCulloch

