

“ FIRST MINISTERS’ ACCOUNT ” OF THE POSSESSIONS OF THE ABBEY OF ST. EDMUND.

BY LILIAN J. REDSTONE.

This roll, of which a detailed abstract follows, is the first account of the possessions of the Abbey returned into the Court of Augmentations. The Abbey was surrendered to the Crown, 4 Nov., 1539; the account is made for the year 1539-40, or (in the case of some manors) for the two years, 1538-40. The roll is kept at the Public Record Office (Mins. Acct. Suff. 31 and 32 Hen. VIII., R. 143). It consists of 123 membranes (each 12 inc. wide and $16\frac{3}{4}$ inc. long), and a rough index of contents: it is written in abbreviated Latin. In making the abstract the original spelling of local and personal names has been retained.

Before the return was made, many of the manors of the Abbey had been purchased by Sir Thomas Kytson, Nicholas and Thomas Bacon, Anthony Rous of Dennington, and others (see fols. 29, 103-109); yet the account has many points of interest, for it shows the distribution of the estates among the obedientiaries of the Abbey, and the term and conditions of leases, together with many details of topographical and social value.
